To get your student's license, you must pass the California DMV written test, which will have 46 questions and you will need 38 to answer correctly to succeed. To get a permit, you pay a $33 fee and must take a standard vision test at your local DMV, in addition to the written knowledge test. Persons under 17 1/2 must also provide proof that they have been enrolled or have completed driving training. The DMV written test will be based on the information contained in the 2020 California Driver Handbook and will be multiple-choice and offered on a touchscreen computer. The fee for your written exam is good for 12 months and covers the cost of taking the test up to three times if necessary. Use this DMV practice test to make sure you pass the first time! Report a problem If you only study the official manual, the chance of passing the written knowledge test is only about 49 percent. The guide they give you at the DMV is not written to learn quickly No matter how smart you are, it has a way of making you feel stupid; there are far too many things to remember at once.
